

TIATR ACADEMY OF GOA

15. Somplelea Tiatrstancho Ugddas

TAG has observed that many tiatr artistes of yesteryears, who have contributed tremendously for the promotion of tiatr in the past, are no more living today. It is observed that these tiatr artistes have been neglected and that the present generation of tiatr lovers, many a times, does not even know about the efforts put in by these late tiatr artistes in preserving and promoting the tiatrs.

In order to give due importance to these artistes, TAG has formulated this scheme of remembering tiatr artistes of yesteryears every month.

The norms of the scheme are:-

1. TAG will make a list of birth dates of prominent veteran tiatr artistes month-wise who are no more.
2. Every month, a programme will be organized by TAG to remember the artistes who were born in that particular month.
3. The programme will feature those artistes who have contributed at least 10 years towards tiatr (Commercial or Non commercial) /khell tiatr/ khell or the writer/director who has staged at least 10 tiatrs (Commercial or Non commercial) /khell tiatr/ khell.
4. Speaker(s) will be invited depending upon the number of tiatr artistes born in that month who will highlight the contribution of the artistes as briefly as possible.
5. Speaker(s) will be paid honorarium as decided by TAG.
6. Besides speeches, a programme of songs/skits/enactments of these artistes will be presented if possible. The programme will encourage narration of incidents in the lives of the artistes by his/her family members, audience, etc.
7. Singers/actors of the tiatr stage will be invited to render the songs/acts of these late artistes and will be paid a remuneration as decided by TAG. The artiste must bring his own keyboard or Guitar with player for accompaniment, and the same will be compensated by TAG as per its norms.
